JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE.

CIVIL SIDE.

Rule of Practice No. 120, dated 3rd December 1904.

Under Section 652 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the Chief Court has made the following Rules in regard to the costs of copies obtained by parties in suits and proceedings.

In Courts of first instance, costs incurred by the parties in obtaining such copies as they may be required to file under the provision of any law in force or by express order of the Court in any suit or proceeding, will ordinarily be entered in the decree or order in such suit or proceeding.

In appellate Courts, the cost of obtaining copies of the decree and judgment required by law to be filed with the memorandum of appeal will ordinarily be allowed, as also cost of unauthenticated copies of depositions in appeals involving questions of fact, and of such other exhibits or papers as may, in the opinion of the Court, be deemed material for the purpose of the appeal.

The Court, original or appellate, may, in its discretion, also allow the costs of any other copies which, in its opinion, were material for a party to obtain for the purposes of his suit.
